Financial crime

The Authorities will cooperate closely when they identify financial crime activities in supervised institutions. For the purposes of this agreement, 'financial crimes' are, in particular, money laundering and all violations of law on financial markets. This includes unauthorised banking business. The Authorities shall share information on financial crime concerning the relevant institutions which carry out cross-border activities in the other jurisdiction, or which might affect the other jurisdiction to the extent allowed under their laws. They may pass on this information, with the prior consent obtained from the other authority, for regulatory or law enforcement purposes, to other such authorities in the national jurisdiction. Article 2 paragraph 3 of this memorandum shall be observed.

Article 4

Crisis situation

The Authorities shall inform each other immediately if they learn of an incipient crisis such as serious financial difficulties which might have a material adverse impact on operations relating to any institution, supervised by either authority, which has cross-border establishments in the other country. The Deutsche Bundesbank shall be included in the exchange of such information.

Article 5

If necessary, the Authorities shall organise meetings of banking supervisory authority managers or banking supervisory experts to discuss issues which are of interest to both parties, including issues connected with improving objectives and methodologies in the performance of banking supervision. Such meetings shall be organised on the basis of a separate, prior written arrangement. The Deutsche Bundesbank shall attend these meetings.

III Granting authorisations for opening a cross-border establishment

Article 6

- 1 In the granting of authorisations for opening a subsidiary bank and representative office, the Authorities agree the following.
  - (a) The host-country authority shall immediately inform the home-country authority on receiving a petition for granting the authorisation,
  - (b) the home-country authority shall inform the host-country authority as to whether a bank which has submitted the aforementioned petition has to obtain the approval of the banking supervision agency of the home country for the opening of a subsidiary bank and representative office,
  - (c) upon request by the supervision agency of the host country, the supervision agency of the home country shall transmit information facilitating the consideration of the aforementioned petition, in particular, information referred to in Article 2 paragraph 4(a).

- 2 The procedure described in the above paragraph shall be applied accordingly in the granting an authorisation for acquiring shares in a bank which has its seat under the jurisdiction of one authority by a bank which has its seat under the jurisdiction of the other authority.

Article 7

If, at a subsidiary bank operating on the territory of the host country, there have been changes related to

- a type of banking operation for which a subsidiary bank is to be authorised,
- a seat of a subsidiary bank,
- the position of a president of the management board of a subsidiary bank, the banking supervision agency of the host country shall immediately inform the banking supervision agencies of the home country of these changes.

IV Ongoing supervision, on-site inspections and audits

Article 8

Branches are supervised according to Articles 22 and 27 to 33 of Directive 2000/12/EC. Subsidiary banks and representative offices are supervised by the host-country authority in accordance with the law of the host country. In addition, cross-border establishments are subject to the consolidated supervision of the home-country authority. The Authorities agree to take joint measures for the supervision of cross-border establishments wherever possible.

Article 9

- 1 The Authorities agree that cooperation is particularly useful in assisting each other in carrying out on-site inspection of cross-border establishments. The BaFin or examiners commissioned by BaFin are allowed to conduct on-site inspections of cross-border establishments of German banks in Poland. Such inspections will be conducted as joint on-site examinations. In return, the CBS is allowed to conduct on-site inspection of cross-border establishments of Polish banks in Germany. The right to initiate such inspections lies with the CBS and the BaFin. Neither authority has the right to veto an on-site inspection or limit the scope of such an examination.

- 2 In the case of on-site examination of cross-border establishments initiated by the home-country authority, the home-country authority shall notify the host-country authority, usually two months in advance, of the inspection giving details of the names of the examiners, the purpose of the audit and its expected duration. The host-country authority shall then invite the home-country authority or auditors commissioned by the home-country authority to participate in the joint examination.
- 3 The Authorities shall cover the costs of examination.

Article 10

With regard to the supervision of systemically relevant cross-border establishments, the host-country authority informs the home-country authority of its specific interest and supervisory concerns. The home-country authority will discuss these concerns with the host-country authority for the purpose of finding the best solution. The Authorities may agree on either ordinary or special measures to solve the supervisory problem, not excluding additional on-site verification of the information. On a case-by-case basis and after due consideration, the home-country authority may request the host-country authority to accompany the home-country authority or their commissioned examiners during a targeted on-site examination of the relevant parent institution if and to the extent this examination covers a specific area directly related to the supervision of the subsidiary or branch in the host country.

Article 11

The Authorities declare that visits by the representatives of the home-country banking supervisors to cross-border establishments, which are not related to examination, shall be carried out after prior notification of the supervision authorities of the host country.

V Final Provisions

Article 12

- 1 This memorandum shall become void
  - pursuant to a decision, taken jointly by the Authorities, that the memorandum does not meet objectives for which it was concluded,
  - if one of the Authorities notifies the other authority of the termination of the memorandum six months prior to the date of termination.

- 2 Notwithstanding the dissolution of the memorandum, those activities undertaken in the binding period of the memorandum shall be continued until their completion.

Article 13

Six copies of the memorandum have been prepared – two copies in Polish, two copies in German and two copies in English. Each party has received three copies – one copy in Polish, one copy in German and one copy in English. The English version of the memorandum shall prevail in any case of doubt concerning its interpretation.

Article 14

The memorandum shall become effective on the day on which it is signed by the parties.

PRACTICAL GUIDELINES FOR COOPERATION BETWEEN THE BAFIN (BUNDESANSTALT FÜR FINANZDIENSTLEISTUNGS-AUFSICHT)
AND THE POLISH FSA (KOMISJA NADZORU FINANSOWEGO)

21 October 2008

1. The cooperation between the Polish FSA and the BaFin is based on the Directive 2006/48/EC and the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) validated by the two Authorities in April 2008 in its form previously agreed and signed by the Commission for Banking Supervision (CBS) – now Polish FSA – and the BaFin on December 20, 2004. Both, Polish FSA and BaFin express their willingness to have practical working guidelines in place in order to specify and clarify aspects of their cooperation. These guidelines shall also cover the cooperation between the Polish FSA and Deutsche Bundesbank. BaFin and Deutsche Bundesbank are hereinafter referred to as “German banking supervisors”.
2. Notwithstanding the above mentioned regulations, the cooperation will be driven by the principle of proportionality and flexibility.
3. The Polish FSA and the German banking supervisors have agreed on a list of banks that are considered as significant for the purpose of their cooperation. The agreed list of such banks is enclosed as Annex 1a and may be changed if necessary. Other banks outside this list (Annex 1b) shall be considered as non-significant for the purpose of the cooperation. As a principle, non-significant banks should be generally subjected to distance cooperation, i.e. letters, phone calls, e-mails. Only in exceptional circumstances, upon the request of either party, joint on-site visits or joint inspections might take place in such non-significant banks.
4. The information on the contact details of analysts/line supervisors in charge of the respective banks and their subsidiaries or branches will be part of this document (Annex 2).
5. In case of significant banks, the German banking supervisors and the Polish FSA will agree on a case by case basis which form of cooperation would be appropriate for a particular bank. As a principle, joint on-site inspections referred to in the Article 9 of the MoU, as the most resource consuming form of cooperation, would be applied upon an initiative of either party and only to significant banks. Joint on-site inspections of parent institutions carried out on basis of the Article 10 of the MoU would be limited to parent institutions of significant banks.
6. Annual visits and/or multilateral supervisory colleges concerning significant banks licensed in Poland that are subsidiaries of German banks, will be held at the agreed time and place with the participation of supervisors in charge of particular parent and subsidiary banks. Such visits should be accompanied by exchange of information relative to the overall situation of the banking sector and changes in law and regulations in both countries. The annual visit may include the elements described in the Article 2.4.b) of the validated MoU between the two Authorities.
7. An example of the program of a supervisory annual visit and the type of the information exchanged are enclosed (Annex 3).
8. The Polish FSA and the German banking supervisors agree on the annual review of the Guidelines if this is proposed by any party.
